MARSHFIELD HIGH
MRRSHFIELD HIGH
VOL. 1 NO. 16

Dedication

The senior class of 1978 dedicates this production to a couple of popular personalities: (drumroll please!) . . . To our much appreciated class advisor, Mr. Gallagher, (applause!) and to everybody's favorite, Mr. Blumberg! (applause!)

Here's lookin' at you!

Mr. Blumberg is different . . .
cool, real cool and casual . . .
He's a great tennis player! . . .
"Mr. Kotter" . . .
funny, philosophical . . .
He used to beat up his little brother . . .
An outright king of guy . . . personal . . .
His wife tells me he makes a good husband . . . He's worth listening to . . .

Mr. Gallagher? He lost weight, didn't he? ...
A great personality ... liberal ... minds his own business ...
honest ... high expectations ...
I think he looks like Fred Flintstone ...
Did he have a beard? ...
Nice guy ... fat but skinny ...
Well, He's half of himself! ...
Definitely a tribute to his school ...

Halloween Ball

The Halloween Ball sponsored by the Junior class was a tremendous success, the dance took place in the cafeteria Saturday Oct. 29. Most of the 400 students adored themselves with highly imaginative costumes ranging from characters of Star Wars to Transylvania characters. The high point of the evening was the awarding of prizes to the best dressed people.

The winners were: first prize to Lisa Malaguti, Mary Courtney and Vicki Caseau second prize to Brian Burke, and third prize to Ricky Roddening.

A very candid shot . . . at the dance

“Seven Keys To Baldpate”

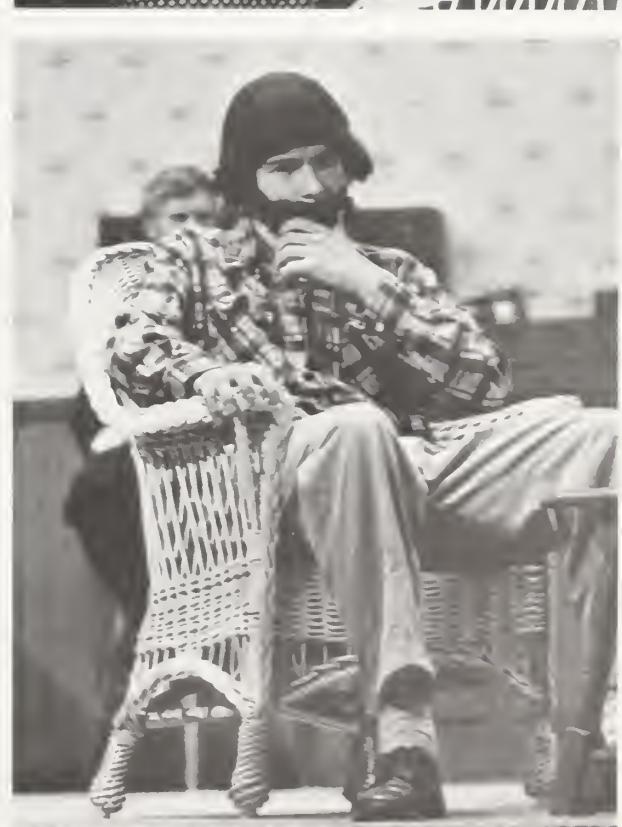

On December 2 and 3, the Marshfield High School Drama Club presented George M. Cohan's "Seven Keys to Baldpate" in the Furnace Brook Auditorium.

The play was set at old Baldpate Inn, a summer mountain resort, in the dead of winter. A young writer made a bet with his friend that he could write a book in only 24 hours, and deserted Baldpate seemed the ideal place to write without interruptions.

However, the inn was full of murderers, ghosts, crooks, double-crossers, hundreds of thousands of dollars and keys and keys.

Homecoming

Isn't she lovely

November 12, Rams half-time and the 1977-78 Homecoming Procession! With the support of the Kiwanis and the Key Club, this year's event was a grand jubilee! While a crowd of thousands (thousands?) cheered, the (choo choo?) train carried the escorted girls around the gridiron. Last year's queen, Cathy Whalen, gave up her crown to the beautiful Ilene Prochazka. Royal runners-up were Sue Connnelly and Karen Acker.

A royal Procession

Engine, Engine, number nine

... former Queen Cathy Whalen

"I crown thee Queen Ilene."

Homecoming Queen Ilene Prochazka, 1st Runner-up Susan Connelly, and 2nd Runner-up Karen Acker

Homecoming Dance

National Honor Society Induction

The National Honor Society inducted twenty seniors at a banquet in December 1977 at the Casa Berini. Speakers included Mr. Donald Sipe, Superintendent of Schools, and Rick Breckenridge, Vice-President of the society. To entertain members, inductees, parents and guests, a segment of "Play It Again Sam" was presented by the Nullis Pretti players. In recognition of his efforts to help the society, Principal John Erickson was also inducted as a lifetime honorary member.

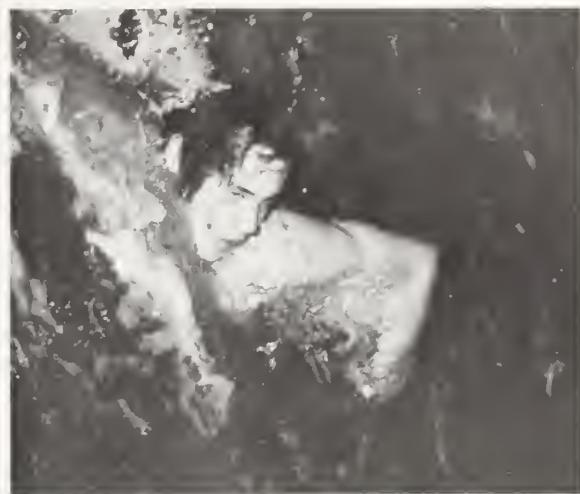

Student Council Swim-A-Thon

This year the Marshfield High School Student Council held its second annual Swim-a-thon. It proved to be extremely successful with the hard work of Student Council members and the cooperation of the student body.

The following people were directly responsible for the success: Laurie Burke, Laura Cavanaugh, Carol Dempsey, Megan Doherty, Bonnie Gerety, Joel Kelly, Stacy Lyons, Bob Fisher, Wendy MacNeill, Tracy Pulciani, Rebecca Smith, Karen Williams, and our advisor Mrs. Cregan.

We hope to hold many more in the future years, and to receive the same generosity shown towards us this year."

Play It Again Sam

Nullis Pretit, Latin for "of no commercial potential," is a group of high school students who got together to produce plays on their own, outside the high school.

Their first production, "Play It Again, Sam" ran January 6 and 7 at the Martinson middle School. "Sam" was well-received, with good-sized audiences and good reviews.

The production, directed by Andy Thornley and Julie Frugoli, starred Arthur Morrison as Alan Felix, Bill Mueller as Dick Christie, Kelly Powell as his lovely wife Linda, and Phil Brennan as Humphrey Bogart, with Karen Acker, Joanna Johnson and Ilene Prochazka.

Key Club Assembly

Who would have thought that on an ordinary February school day Marshfield High School could be visited by a famous hypnotist named Edward Mathews? Who could forget that memorable day when the real character of the students was revealed? One can remember the antics of Mary Leahy standing up and yelling "what are you some kind of a nut!!" Or Jody Roderick thinking he was attending an obscene show. Who could forget the incident between Chipper Reilly and Lisa Gilbert or Marureen O'Shea's boat ride? These are all memories that will be remembered long after we graduate. The class of '78 would like to thank the Key Club for this fine performance.

Bookends

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was...
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago... it must be...
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

Paul Simon
